

Dr. Rashmi Singh Roy

A competent and result-driven professional associated with service industry and having around 7 years of cross – functional experience in the field of Human Resource Management & General Administration, Dr. Rashmi Singh Roy started her career with ITC Ltd. - Hotels Division, a premier hospitality chain. Later, she got associated with other business groups like PVR Limited and The Golden Palms Hotel & Spa, a five star Deluxe Hotel in Bangalore in the capacity of Manager - Human Resources. Having a significant expertise in managing a wide spectrum of human resource management functions entailing manpower planning, performance appraisals, training & development, employee relations, compensation and benefits with a view to secure a sound work culture within the organizations, she is also having a distinction of designing and implementing various recruitment and retention strategies for the organizations, benchmarking them with the best in the industry.. A certified SIX SIGMA GREEN BELT HOLDER, she has also worked with United Nations Information Council for the spread of education to distant areas .She has also received the “Academy Industry Interface Award “ from Amity International Business School , Noida for mentoring the students imbining managerial skills and leadership qualities. A graduate from Lady Shri Ram College for Women, Delhi University ,a post graduate from Miranda House , Delhi University and a Post Graduate Diploma in Business Management (PGDBM) from New Delhi Institute of Management (3rd Topper of the batch, Scored 4.45/5 C.G.P.A.) , she also holds a PhD degree from Patna University. Her hobbies include team sports, dancing, mentoring, meditation, creative writing, watching movies and community service.